a. Quality Workplace Briefing - Members of Real Estate and Construction Division, Office of Logistics (RECD/OL), and a representative from Policy and Planning, Office of Finance, attended a briefing by Terence Golden, Administrator of General Services Administration (GSA), on 7th October 1986. Mr. Golden and members of the Public Building Service, GSA, presented a preview of GSA's New Agenda for a Quality Workplace. The focus of the program was on reducing costs associated with operating Government buildings, while enhancing productivity and providing a modern efficient workplace. There are a number of new initiatives, including consolidation of Agency locations, a building purchase program, advanced funding for space saving alterations and use of systems furniture. Another session, scheduled for 15 October 1986, will cover implementation of the program and should provide more insight as to the extent this Agency may want to become involved. [REDACTED] Black).
